From Our Principal

Greetings to North Quincy High School Class of 1954, and sincere congratulations to the advisor, editor, and all who have produced this annual. It is an outstanding book with a real foundation, the import of which can be of inestimable worth to all who wish to strive for the enduring values of happiness and success.

Dedication to honor whereby one is ready to meet its challenge requires the cultivation of virtues essential to successful living and carries with it the courage to face life's situations with a firm determination to succeed and be satisfied only with the best.

May you cherish always your class associations and be suitably rewarded for your deeds in your quests for worthwhile living.

James S. Collins, Principal

Miss Katherine Horrigan

To Our Dedicatee

GRIDIRON HISTORY

One bright spot in our big year was our sparkling. spirited football team. The solid forward wall received nothing but praise all season long and the nimble backs all made like Crazylegs. They began to show their superiority from the opening kickoff when they knocked off Hingham 32-7. They kept rolling the following week and trounced Dedham 28-0. Then. with everyone up for the big game with Weymouth. and school spirit at its peak. the opening kickoff came. From that moment it was a tense, action-packed ball game which ended in a heartbreaking 14-7 loss. This was one the boys just couldn't forget. "If only . . ." But they bounced back next week to romp over Norwood 39-13 and continued their rampage to beat Belmont 32-14.

Since we hadn't beaten Milton for five years the boys decided to break that string. Keyed up by the headlines "We'll score—McCormack." they coasted to an easy 49-0 win. But the team was due for a letdown. and it came against Braintree in a 14-0 loss. That gave them enough fight to cop a 20-7 prize in the Annual Turkey Day Classic.

This was truly a team to be remembered for record breaking: highest point total, 221; highest single score. 49: highest single point total. Joe Crowley with 102 points; and highest score against Quincy. 20. among others.

Thus the season came to a dramatic finish with five boys being selected for the South Shore All-Scholastic Team: Bo Lyons at center. Ken Sargent at guard. Don Rielly at tackle. Vin Penzo at end, and Joe Crowley at halfback. Something to be proud of!

GO, NORTH, GO!

Although this year's hustling varsity squad ran into some tough competition, they proved they were no soft touch for anyone. This all-around team was a threat in any league with Ed Densmore and Joe Crowley in their back court work, Don Ames' deadly eye, and Ed Gilbody and George Denneen on the boards.

This classy outfit started off the season by beating Natick 58-40 and continued to roll over Mission and Thayer. They met their first stumbling block against Quincy but bounced back against Weymouth 73-56. In their next outing they couldn't keep up with the Wamps in Braintree's spacious gym and dropped a 49-41 decision. Then in a squeaker Coach Mullarkey's charges eked out a 68-64 win over Arlington. Brockton & Attleboro's experienced squads proved too much for the boys and they dropped their next two games.

Against Thayer's vastly improved five in their replica of Boston Garden, North ran into some tough competition. With the score deadlocked after an overtime, Ed Gilbody grabbed the tap-off and put in a sudden death shot to cop a 49-47 win. They kept their Tech Tourney hopes alive in their next outing by beating Weymouth 80-55. But since they needed 5 wins out of their next 5 games and had teams like Arlington and Brockton coming up they just couldn't keep up the pace. They did, however, avenge two earlier losses by beating Attleboro and Braintree. They knocked off Natick once again and lost to Quincy to close the regular season. The boys, led by Ed Gilbody and his all around outstanding play, finished with a respectable 10-7 record. Then it was Gilbody and Co. on to the Bay State Tourney.

LIGHTNING ON ICE

With a new, well-organized league and the prospect of inside ice, the hockey games got under way, coached by Bob Laing. With the new comers, Archbishop Williams and Christopher Columbus, North found faster teams and more competition. But nothing was too much for these boys as they again copped the South Shore crown and went into the Met Tourney.

THEY RUN THEIR COURSE

Whiz, and there goes the track team breezing through another successful season! The boys couldn't wait till the frost was off the pumpkin, so in mid-winter the school became a Bedlam with the hurdlers vaulting the banisters and the milers marathoning down the corridors. The "go boys" proved that practice makes perfect, though, with many blazing victories.

Ready, aim, fire

A yearbook, I suppose, is a record of one of the best years of our lives. In days to come it should bring back many cherished memories. But I'd like to think of the '54 Manet as an inspiration we'll always have with us. It attempts to show that in our years at North we have developed leadership ability through our teachers, gained scholarship training in each classroom, acquired depth of character by athletics, and practised serving one another in our activities.

As for this book if there is one person who deserves a lot more credit than he gets for all he has done for us it's John Hofferty. Thanks also to Mr. Bleiler who was satisfied with nothing less than perfection in his photography, and to Mr. Moore who was always good for a timely suggestion and a new idea. We're continually grateful to our extra efficient typists and to Miss Morrison and Miss Mullaney who were always willing to help us with a smile.

We were really lucky to get a great business manager like Ed. Densmore and a layout editor like Buddy Harris with his professional-like designs.

So you see it takes all kinds of people to make a yearbook as well as a world.
